Freedom Is

To me, freedom means to be able to do as you please without bringing harm onto others or interfering with someone else's right to do so.

By Dolores Hatchel

Freedom lies in the right to live. To accomplish what we are most capable of. To be motivated by our own conception of happiness and justification without being reprimanded.

By Sue Milatich

Freedom is hard for me to know about. Even though all of us hear, feel, and see freedom all the days of our lives in this country, not many of us know and appreciate the privileges and advantages we have. American-born citizens have never really stepped aside and thought of what this country is and stands for. I'm sorry but as I have always lived with the ability to see—not knowing what it means to be blind—I will not know what it means to be free until I am no longer.

By Michelle Cassidy

To me freedom is being able to do what you want without someone watching over your shoulder. The chance to do things on your own. Freedom lets you do things whenever you want to. Freedom sets you free to live your own way.

By Ann Crippen

Freedom to me is being able to have the right to vote for whomever you want. Being able to have your own religion and not being hated for it or mocked. Freedom to me is just to be alive and living here in such a great country.

Freedom means to be free to do as you please. To go out and let yourself go where you please and do what you please without anyone standing in your way, to a certain extent, that is. It's like a bird flying in the sky, there's no one stopping him. He has a mind of his own like we do. So just do what makes you feel free, go where it makes you feel free, just be free.

By D J M

The love you gave me, made me happy. Our feelings and thoughts all surround me. Those precious moments we spend together, finds our meaning of freedom. Tomorrow we wonder will it ever be the same. Wanting and hoping for happiness again. But never will we really know, the meaning of Freedom it never shows.

By Dianna West

Freedom to me is a beautiful thing. To me it means that I can do what ever I want, whenever I want, where ever I want. But it's more than that it's also a feeling of being your own person and being what you want to be. Freedom is a walk when you want it, to talk to anyone you want, to say what you want, do what you want, and without anyone bothering you about it. But even if they take this freedom away, we'll always have one kind of freedom; freedom of thought.

By Shari Durnil

Steve,
Glad you were here to bug me. It made the year for me! Hope to see you during the summer.

Freedom is loving the mountains with their ever increasing beauty. Freedom is a seagull gliding in the sky.

Freedom is the trees and the flowers swaying in the wind.

Freedom is the grass and the weeds, growing for themselves with no limits.

Freedom is the ocean rushing in with the tides, sometimes quiet, sometimes loud, it's her choice. Freedom is the snow falling, always different, with no known or desired destination.

Freedom is laughing and crying at the same time.

Freedom is loving to care when it's your choice.

Freedom is being able to love.

Freedom . . . is love.

Freedom is perfecting this love—the love that is your life.

By Jeanne Trepanier

When I think of freedom I think of all happy and beautiful things. I think of green hills, flowery meadows, trees, the snowy white mountains, the roaring blue ocean, the golden sand, and all naturous things. I think of these things because they are all free. The grass grows from the sun and rain when it wants to. The flowers bloom in beautiful colors at special times of the year. No one tells the rain when to fall or the sun when to shine or the flowers when to grow. These things just happen and they always turn out beautiful.

By Paula Anderson

See ya,
Love,
Jeanne
Trepanier

Freedom is being able to have the right to do as we please as long as we think it is right in our own minds. It gives the people a chance to show how they can be responsible person. They are not told what to do, where to work, who to associate with and all that stuff. We are able to make our own decisions and choices of what we really want in life.

Freedom to me is three basic responsibilities. First, our founding fathers who had a dream and risked life and limb for that dream. Secondly, freedom is a responsibility to ourselves and those in the generation in which we live. Because the manner in which we chose to exercise or restrict our freedom in our daily life can drastically effect ourselves and the lives of those around us. Thirdly, and possibly most important, freedom is a responsibility to those which are to follow in our footsteps, our sons and daughters. What freedoms are we leaving them? Freedom to me is the responsibility of each generation to the next to insure that our actions will never impede their rights.

By Troy Howard

Freedom to me is being able to sit and think without having somebody's thoughts put into my head, to be able to help someone and be a friend to someone who isn't so fortunate, without being put down for it. Freedom is to love and worship the ONE Lord & God without opposition.

Freedom is all of these things and so much more. It's what brought our forefathers to this country and the basic principles which this country was founded on.

By Heidi Gruber

Freedom in my opinion is the right to do, say, and especially, think what you wish, as long as it doesn't interfere with someone else. No one should be forced to do anything against their will. I don't believe, either, that anybody should have to do something against their nature to be with the "in" crowd. In my opinion, conformity is one of the worst blows to freedom there is. If people don't accept you, the way you are, then go ahead and be a loner.

By Jeff Barton

As an individual you have a lot of responsibilities in life, and the most important one is you. How you live, and what your plans are for life is really up to you. So freedom to me is having that right and not letting anyone else make up my mind for me.

The Statue of Liberty

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

W h e n in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he utterly neglected to attend to them. He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only. He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. He has refused for a long time, in answer to repeated petitions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the meantime exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within. He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary power. He has made Judges dependant on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance. He has kept among us in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures. He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power. He has combined with other Kings to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: For quartering large Bodies of armed troops among us: For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States: For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent: For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury: For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences: For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies: For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments: For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of His Protection and waging War against us. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands. He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have We been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have pleaded with them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

WE, THEREFORE, the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which INDEPENDENT States may of right do. AND for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.

Administration

This Year, Everett High School, along with the rest of the nation has been involved in all kinds of activities in observance of our country's Bicentennial Celebration. Throughout the curriculum, an attempt has been made to emphasize our country's great heritage and past history. Through student projects and activities, physical changes have been made to improve our school which will leave a lasting tribute to this observance.

This Bicentennial observance could not have come at a better time. The turmoil of the 60's and the past two years caused many to question the direction in which our country was moving; however, after reviewing our country's past 200 years, it becomes quite apparent that this country has experienced many trying times.

The significant thing is, that this country has survived these times and after each incident has emerged a stronger country.

of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION for the United States of America.

Article I.

SECTION 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

SECTION 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty-five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

[Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons.] The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at Least one Representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New-York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

SECTION 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one-third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.

No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.

The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

SECTION 4. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Place of Chusing Senators.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different Day.

SECTION 5. Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behavior, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

SECTION 7. All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it become a Law, be presented to the President of the United States; If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his Objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.

Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill.

SECTION 8. The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

To borrow money on the credit of the United States;

To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes;

To establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization, and uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States;

To coin Money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures;

To provide for the Punishment of counterfeiting the Securities and current Coin of the United States;

To establish Post Offices and post Roads;

To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries;

The Monroe Doctrine

December 2, 1823

FELLOW-CITIZENS of the Senate and House of Representatives . . . At the proposal of the Russian Imperial Government, made through the minister of the Emperor residing here, a full power and instructions have been transmitted to the minister of the United States at St. Petersburg to arrange by amicable negotiations the respective rights and interests of the two nations on the northwest coast of this continent. A similar proposal had been made by His Imperial Majesty to the government of Great Britain, which has likewise been acceded to. The government of the United States has been desirous, by this friendly proceeding, of manifesting the great value which they have invariably attached to the friendship of the Emperor and their solicitude to cultivate the best understanding with his government. In the discussions to which this interest has given rise and in the arrangements by which they may terminate, the occasion has been judged proper for asserting, as a principle in which the rights and interests of the United States are involved, that the American continents, by the free and independent condition which they have assumed and maintain, are henceforth not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by any European powers . . .

It was stated at the commencement of the last session that a great effort was then making in Spain and Portugal to improve the condition of the people of those countries, and that it appeared to be conducted with extraordinary moderation. It need scarcely be remarked that the result has been so far very different from what was then anticipated.

Of events in that quarter of the globe, with which we have so much intercourse and from which we derive our origin, we have always been anxious and interested spectators. The citizens of the United States cherish sentiments the most friendly in favor of the liberty and happiness of their fellow-men on that side of the Atlantic. In the wars of the European powers in matters relating to themselves we have never taken any part, nor does it comport with our policy so to do. It is only when our rights are invaded or seriously menaced that we resent injuries or make preparation for our defense.

With the movements in this hemisphere we are of necessity more immediately connected, and by causes which must be obvious to all enlightened and impartial observers. The political system of the allied powers is essentially different in this respect from that of America. This difference proceeds from that which exists in their respective governments; and to the defense of our own, which has been achieved by the loss of so much blood and treasure, and matured by the wisdom of their most enlightened citizens, and under which we have enjoyed unexampled felicity, this whole nation is devoted.

We owe it, therefore, to candor and to the amicable relations existing between the United States and those powers to declare that we should consider any attempt on their part to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere dangerous to our peace and safety. With the existing colonies or dependencies of any European power we have not interfered and shall not interfere. But with the governments who have declared their independence and maintained it, and whose independence we have, on great consideration and on just principles, acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them, or controlling in any other manner their destiny, by any European power in any other light than as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States. In the war between the new governments and Spain we declared our neutrality at the time of their recognition, and to this we have adhered and shall continue to adhere, provided no change shall occur which, in the judgement of the competent authorities of the United States, shall make a corresponding change on the part of the United States indispensable to their security.

The late events in Spain and Portugal show that Europe is still unsettled. Of this important fact no stronger proof can be adduced than that the allied powers should have thought it proper, on any principle satisfactory to themselves, to have interposed by force in the internal concerns of Spain. What extent such interpositions may be carried, on the one hand, and what principle, is a question in which all independent powers whose governments differ from theirs are interested, even those most remote, and surely none more so than the United States. Our policy in regard to Europe, which was adopted at an early stage of the wars which have so long agitated that quarter of the globe, nevertheless remains the same, which is not to interfere in the internal concerns of any of its powers, to consider the government de facto as the legitimate government for us; to cultivate friendly relations with it, and to preserve those relations by a frank, firm, and manly policy, meeting in all instances the just claims of every power, and submitting to injuries from none.

But in regard to these (the American) continents, the circumstances are eminently and conspicuously different. It is impossible that the allied powers should extend their political system to any portion of either continent without endangering our peace and happiness; nor can anyone believe that the southern brethren, if left to themselves, would adopt any other than their own accord. It is equally impossible, therefore, that they should behold such interpositions in any form with indifference. If we look to the comparative strength and resources of Spain and those new governments, and their distance from each other, it must be obvious that she can never subdue them. It is still the true policy of the United States to leave the parties to themselves, in the hope that other powers will pursue the same course . . .

Vietnamese Students

This year Everett High School became the new high school for seven Vietnamese students. These new students tackled a variety of courses, Advanced Algebra, English writing courses, and some took homemaking courses which they seemed to enjoy. These Vietnamese students sewed with the skill of their homeland.

Ms. Curtis has helped these students to adapt to their new life styles by scheduling them into their classes. She was also a good friend to whom these students could take their problems when they couldn't understand what was going on. Another person who helped these Vietnamese students was their tutor, Sandra Cross who taught them English.

The students of EHS welcome these students and wish them all good luck in their new way of life.

Foreign Exchange Students

Fabian Gavilanes is an exchange student from Ecuador.

Richardo Santos is an exchange student from Spain.

Marianne von Weizacker is an exchange student from Germany.

Everett was pleased to have the following exchange students as part of its school year; Fabian Gavilanes is from Ecuador, Richardo Santos is from Spain, and Marianne von Weizacher is from Germany.

Fabian and Richardo have been at Everett since the beginning of the school year. Fabian had a little trouble at first but soon was able to attend school here. Marianne arrived just in time for second semester classes.

Marianne the most recent arrival is taking classes such as Political Action, Human Relations, and of course German 8. Fabian and Richardo are taking similar classes, except that they are both taking Spanish.

The Gettysburg Address

November 19, 1863

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate — we can not consecrate — we can not hallow — this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us — that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion — that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain — that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom — and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

4 Leave Everett for Up With People

Up With People are good, if for nothing else, but their enthusiasm.

Two cast members take time to eat a meal prepared by Feast.

Up With People have often been described as a "traveling troupe of youths who sing of the brotherhood of man." And that they are.

Cast members are selected more for their energy and enthusiasm than their musical talent.

4 Everett youths were selected to join the group. After a 5-wk. training period in Tuscan, Arizona they believe they will be able to sing and dance. Each of the youths had to come up with $3950 to join the group. This covers all expenses.

The 1st activity of their 5 day stay was a trip to the Boeing plant to watch the assembly of a 747. The group then performed at the Monroe Reformatory, Colby Manor, Bethany Home, the Luther Child Center, and the Civic Auditorium. All proceeds went to the Everett Youth Fund.

The cast stood motionless as they listened proudly to their soloist.

band takes the spot light as the rest of the cast backs them up.

"What Color Is God's Skin", is sang beautifully by this lovely soloist.

of their favorites, the cast moves to "Up With People".

Even with their busy schedule they still find time for their stomachs.

Girls Fight for March of Dimes

The annual Powderpuff football game kicked off on Oct. 1. The rough and rowdy Senior girls of EHS met the Bruins of Cascade. It was a game of falls, bruises, and unfortunately, touchdowns for Cascade as they defeated Everett 30-12. Everett fielded a tough squad which included, Killer K. Schalka, Jiven J. Metzger, Rough R. Lund, Cream Em C. Erickson, Basher B. DeGroot, Dangerous D. Gaffney, Mean M. Cope, Too Much T. Bur-sato, Killer K. Olsen, and many many more stars. EHS's 2 touch-downs came from runs of 55 and 2 yds. by Madhouse M. O'Neil. She was greatly assisted by the offense blocking of her teammates. The game was a success money wise as $630 was netted for the March of Dimes. Great potential was also shown by the outstanding cheer-leaders.

Rob Nelson, one of the more prominent members of the cheerstaff, displays her wonderful talent.

Gull's Pace Way to 6-2 Season

This year's Cross Country team had a successful season despite the chronic injuries that plagued the Varsity team. Don Martin went to the State Meet & placed in the top 25. The highlight of the season was Molly O'Neil's capture of the State Girls Title. Molly's determination was the deciding factor, she ran the 2 mile layout in 11 min. 45 sec., 1 sec. ahead of heavily favored Debbie Quatier of Edmonds.

The Girls Tennis Team ended the season with a 6-5 record, sending a doubles & 2 singles teams to the SUB-District tournament, C. Johnson won the N.W. District & advanced to State. The entire team had an outstanding attitude and is fast becoming tradition. Seniors Mary Jane, Karen, Candy, Sue, Debbie, and Diane will be missed, but returning girls are eager for next fall. Mary Jane lettered 2 yrs. & won Inspirational award 2 yrs. in a row.

Co-capt. Munnich eyes the ball.

The Yell Leaders are Cindi Andrew, Dorothy Hunt, Kathy Borgford, (6th Row) Sue Clayton, Cathy Struble, and (7th Row) Loretta Ringman.

Throughout the year EHS cheer leading squads helped to raise spirit for successful school events. They helped show how much our school stands behind our athletes and coaches. There is no minor sport or major sport forgotten by the girls in gold or by the girls in blue. They are another reason why we are the "School of Champions".

Girls Volleyball Spike in Second

The girls Volleyball team qualified for second place in the district playoffs by winning 7 out of 9 games in conference play. In the district playoffs they won their first match against Sehome but lost to Cascade and Lynnwood. Mrs. Howard was especially pleased with the teams attitude and the excellent leadership of Team captain Judy Crippen. The Varsity team is only losing three players to graduation; Nancy Daoust, Geri Lee & Liz Crippen, Jr. Varsity Captain. Mrs. Howard is looking forward to an even better season next year.

The Everett girls swim team showed tremendous improvement over the course of the season. While swimming against experienced teams such as Woodway, Mariner and Edmonds, the girls were able to break 9 out of 11 school records this year and send 11 girls to the Regional Meet at Mariner High School. Three Seniors will not be back next year: Capt. Sue Cronkhite, Cheri Coble, Carla Young. However with returning record holders such as Jeanne Trepainor, Chris Lee, Maureen Tetreault, Mickey Anderson, Paula Troxell and Linda Lucas, prospects are very bright for continued improvement next year.

Wesco Champs After 14 Years

The 1975 Everett Seagulls squad was a TEAM OF CHAMPIONS from the SCHOOL OF CHAMPIONS. In the memories of the fans, faculty, supporters, student body, and coaches who all followed, cheered for, and lead the '75 Seagulls, these young men will always be remembered as the "comeback kids". After three weeks of the season the Gulls stood one win, two losses. Then, determined to settle down and play tough football, these athletes proceeded to win seven straight games which included the Co-Championship of the Western Conference as well as the Regional Championship. In a gallant contest against favored Kennedy, Everett's hopes for a state championship were finally halted. But, what a season! What a comeback! The 1975 Seagull football team is one that all Gull supporters can remember and be proud of in the years to follow.

Night Game Highlites JV Season

A full program of reserve games were played this year with the Everett Gulls finishing even at 4-4 record. The Gulls fielded a young team predominantly sophomores and only a sprinkle of junior kids. "One highlite of the season was the opening game - a trip to Granite Falls for a main event under the lights with the Granite Falls Varsity." As far as the philosophy of the reserve football program goes, the staff of coaches were well pleased with the progress of their young boys.

All Was Lost . . . Except Experience

Everett struggles on the ground . . .

Everett's "Baby Gulls" football team wasn't as successful as its 0 - 6 record indicates, but the coaches feel that there was a lot of talented players that will play a lot of good football in the coming years at Everett. The spirit and attitude of the team overall was the best its been in the Freshmen program. A few of this year's team will be challenging for Varsity openings next year if they work hard in the off season.

Guys and Dolls-A Combined Success

Changes have been made for the better in the Fall production of Guys and Dolls. The music and drama depts. combined in an attempt at the best of both. Mr. Henry directed drama. Mrs. Shoemaker conducted the orchestra and choreographed all dances. The orchestra was seated backstage behind a cheesecloth divider, as opposed to in front, as done in previous years.

The production is set in the busy, bustling city of New York, in the 1950's. The 4 main characters are Nathan Detroit, Sky Master-son, Miss Adelaide (a dancer), and Miss Sara (the Mission Doll). Nathan Detroit portrays a well informed con man in search of a place to hold a crap game. Sky Master-son portrays a gambler attempting to win a bet by taking the Mission Doll to Havana. Miss Adelaide is becoming highly annoyed at her 14 year engagement to Nathan. Miss Sara is experiencing her first taste of love and doesn't quite know how to react. Officer Brandegan, the neighborhood cop, is only making matters worse by nosing around. Out of this somewhat funny mess comes the ever present good, as Adelaide and Sara, being the women they are, don't give up on their men, and both couples are at last married; and Sky and Nathan give up gambling for the women they love.

Nathan discusses the matter of the crap game with Biltmore Garage.

A sinner-doomed to be saved.

Sky and Sara consent to Adelaide and Nathan being married in the mission.

Lisa Scrabble strikes the traditional block of wood before opening night.

Miss Sara walks in disappointment as her words have failed again.

Sky and Sara dance with lovely cuban dancer in Havanna.

Miss Adelaide tells Nathan of their marriage and kids that aren't.

Miss Sara sings to Sky of her perfect love.

Miss Adelaide performs "Bushel and a Peck" at the Hot Box.

Lieutenant Brandegon discovers gamblers playing craps in the mission.

As the choir was singing, "Sacred Halls of Everett High", Princesses Kim Clubb, Sue Crumbaugh, Teresa Root, and Tuba Borsato were introduced and escorted to their appointed chairs. Vigorous anticipation was building and finally when Queen Renee Outcalt was introduced the entire EHS student body let out roars so loud that nobody could hear her speech. After the noise subsided all the candidates were announced and were escorted, one by one, off the stage and down the aisles of the auditorium. To conclude the homecoming week, Queen Renee and her court attended various luncheons and rode on the Homecoming float at Everett's game against Lynnwood.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O! SAY, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming:
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming,
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;

O! say, does that Star-spangled Banner still wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam—
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;

'Tis the Star-spangled Banner, O! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is the band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country would leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave.
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave!

And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the foe's desolation;
Bless'd with victory and peace, may our Heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just—
And this be our motto—"In God is our trust!"

And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Cummins Memorial Game

Father and Daughter watch game earnestly.

Here we go!

The 1975 Cummins Memorial Game was played before an enthusiastic crowd on the evening of November 26 in the Everett High School Gymnasium. The faculty team were again victorious over the Everett Firemen in a close game that was punctuated with brilliant play. Most importantly, a generous contribution to the Cummins Fund by the Everett Firefighters raised the income from the Game to well over five hundred dollars.

Victorious

Proceeds from the Cummins Memorial Basketball Game will make it possible for a graduating senior to again be recognized for service to Everett High School. The 1975 winner of the Cummins Memorial Award was Jim King, who received a scholarship of five hundred dollars, and who is now attending WSU.

The support given by the student body was great, and the faculty team was very effusive in expressing their appreciation of the support.

! Here! Throw it to me!

Gee, I wish he would go away!

Christmas Basket Fund Drive

The Christmas Basket Fund Drive was held to raise money and collect canned goods for needy families in the Everett area. This years goal is $800.00 dollars to provide food for 60 families. This year the school zoomed over their goal with over 1400.00 dollars to provide over 100 families a Christmas Basket.

A Santa was placed on the main bulletin board as each homeroom met their quota, a toy was placed in the workshop and one sent to the home-room. Thanks to the Girls and Boys Clubs many families had a Merry Christmas.

Varsity Basketball

The Gulls opened their season with a heartbreaking (1) point loss to Anacortes. Beginning with the Bellingham game during Christmas vacation, the team began to jell & played hard for the remainder of the year. This years team demonstrated an out-standing defensive effort holding their opponents on an average of less than 40 points per game. The defensive effort was led by Captain Tom Hooper. Everett High is still the "School of Champions."

JV Basketball

Everett's Rich McGinty pushes for an offensive move.

Joel Ludwig passes for a basket.

This year's Junior Varsity Basketball Team was gifted with some very good young players. The squad was made up of 5 Freshmen and 2 Sophomores, in addition to some Juniors. In this type of situation, success can not necessarily be determined by the number of wins (though the team did win their first 7 games) as the experienced gained by the young kids competing at this level was unmeasurable. The program did however show positive signs for the future of basketball at Everett High School.

Soph. and Frosh. Basketball

SOPHOMORE TEAM

This year's Sophomore team was small with the tallest players: Kevin Dykema and Jeff Wicklund only 6:0, stretching. The team was one of aggressiveness. They played eagerly and were good on defense. The team played 13 games. One game a week. Leading scorers, half way through the season were: Don Martin averaging 16 pts. per game and John Rettenmier averaging 10. Leading rebounder was Kevin Dykema.

FRESHMEN TEAM

This year's Freshmen Basketball players have the potential of becoming a fine varsity team. Three freshmen made the Junior Varsity team, leaving the Frosh squad twelve fine players with which to represent E.H.S. The 75-76 squad have a fine record.

The team showed improvement daily and had a very positive attitude. It was very apparent that if these boys continued to work and improve, as they did, the School of Champions could rest assured they would be well represented in the future. They didn't disappoint us.

Swimming: A Real Splash

This year the E.H.S. Swim team began a building process with a new coach and a large number of under-class swimmers. Led by captains Russ Chittick in the butterfly and Jim Trask in free style events, the teams performance belied its 1 and 9 record in one of the states strongest swimming conferences.

Front Row: C.Gaffney, M.Hatch, G.Eastman, K.Nadeau, D.Bigelow, M.Padilla, B.Haverlock, Back Row: D.Shockly, T.Bold, D.Duffy, M.Toyrea, J.Trepanier, D.Eitner, B.Macaulay, M.Johnson, J.Trask, R.Chittick, S.Lewis, K.Clark, V.Clubb, J.Root, J.Kinard, Coach J.Bennett.

E.H.S. Wrestling Placed Well in Regionals

Everett's Varsity team was made of mostly sophomores, two juniors and seniors Dave Womack, Curt Stock, Henry James. As the season progressed many of the wrestlers developed into very tough competitors. Everett placed well in the team regional wrestling tournament where two wrestlers qualified to enter the state meet. Dave Womack placed third and now has a record of 18-9 and lead the team in near falls with 34. Captain Henry James has a successful year setting a new school record of 33 takedowns and tying Dave with five pins for the season.

Count Dracula. A Frightening Experience

This year one of the most BLOOD thirsty villains of all time made his appearance on the EHS Little Theater stage, for their Spring production of Count Dracula. Set in the 1930's, the play took place in a sanitarium run by Dr. Seward, whose relatives, friends, and various kinds of other people make up the show. The show itself is abound in uncanny special effects and feats of magic. All in all, it frightened and entertained all who saw it.

Paul Lucas shutters in fright.

Who will be the Countess' next victim?

14-3 Record Brings 2nd Place In Wesco

This year's tennis team had a great year as they took second in Western Conference, with 14 wins and 3 losses.

Everett High has a tradition of winning tennis teams. This year's team carried on the tradition very well.

Next year we hope to be number 1 in Western Conference.

Standing Left to Right: Jay Peterson, Gene St. Denis, Tony Brubaker, Tim Brubaker, Tom Skalley.
Sitting: Coach-Pat Barrett, Tim Pyle, Steve Jacobson. Captain-Bill Ingram, Bennet Slusarz.

Bill Ingram reaches for the incoming ball.

Tim Pyle decides on the backhand return.

Golfers Bring Wesco Title Home

The Everett High Golf Team completed the regular season with a 15-2 record & captured the Western Conference Crown. The gulls won (6) of the (8) WESCO tournaments. This year's team was composed of all underclassmen & had outstanding depth, as eight players challenged for Varsity spots.

Dave Cuthill seems to be saying "Alright" as the ball drops in the hole.

Luke Wilson sends the ball flying.

Varsity Soccer Has.....

This year the E.H.S. soccer team has compiled a record of 6 wins & 12 losses. Coach Dennis Scafe has attributed the poor record to injuries and a lack of luck. Injuries to some key offensive personnel have slowed the pace of the Gulls attack. One of the bright spots on the team is Rodney Crocker at Goalie. He has allowed only 1.6 goals per game against him and is among the top goalies in the Western Conference. Coach Scafe is very optimistic about next year's season. He points out, "We're about due to win 4 or 5 in a row."

John Secoy battles Lynnwood for the ball.

Wade Minor dribbles downfield.

Track Team Has "Mixed Success"

The 1976 Track Team has had mixed success in Dual & Three Way Meets this season. Some individuals have consistently taken first places, but the team lacks the required depth to be strong in Dual Meets. Some of the track men who have been successful this season are Ron Gipson - Sprints, Tim Collins-High Hurdles, Long & Triple Jumps, Rich Webber - High & Low Hurdles, & Capt. Darrel Martian - 880, mile & mile relay. Both the 440 & mile relay teams have done well so far & promise to be a positive Factor in the conference & District Meets.

The Track Team is looking forward to the conference & District Track Meets. A positive attitude will resolve to bring more Track honors to the "School Of Champions" Everett High.

Ron Gipson shows what it takes to be a great WESCO Sprinter.

Darrell Martin completes another mile.

Bret Thomas is about to make the long jump.

New Coach Leads Way For Girls Track

Under the reign of new head coach Haug, this years girls track team has been very successful. With such individual talent as Molly O'Neil, Jan Metager, and Joey Smith competing in the mile, 100 dash, 80yrd. low hurdles; respectively. Though lacking depth in many events, this years success will set an example for returning members.

Determination is a must when one tries to clear the high jump.

Molly O'Neal cruises well ahead of other milers.

you get on the b.b team. Don't steady too hard in future & remember you said you'd raise your GPA to 3.0 - Do it!

An Inspirational Season

WOW! What a way to start a season, 7-0 and still going strong. This years boys team has proven to be highly motivated and inspirational. With 5 seniors leading the way, (Dan Justice, Bill Ross, Doug Hoyle, Steve Cook, and Kurt Stock) the team continues to make great improvement.

The team has developed something more valuable than any win-loss record could ever achieve, and that's an atmosphere of togetherness that increased with every meet.

An Exciting Spring

The girls are always ready to make a good play.

Glenda Paluka watches the game with great interest.

Judy Crippen and Mary Little find it hard to keep warm between innings.

The Everett girls softball team has had a great season so far this year. In conference they have had a 9 win, 1 loss record. Mrs. Howard feels these are as fine a group of players as you'll find. Everyone has given outstanding performances at one time or another.

The team has great prospects for the future with many players returning as well as many upcoming freshmen. Everyone is starting to watch for some really super teams in the near future.

SPEED, SKILL & TEAMWORK

Back (l-r): W. Shatto, G. Rielly, J. Bielser, J. Petosa, J. Trepanier, R. Osborne, T. Howard.
Front (l-r): J. Duffy, D. Koshelnik, K. Boyd, R. Mc Ginty, MGR-R. Secor, S. Erickson, G. Lasater, J. Totusek, R. Soriano.

Varsity got off to a fast start winning 5-7 games. Capt. Greg Rielly threw a no-hit, no-run game against Snohomish on their turf April 12th. Two of the best pitchers in our conference, Greg & George Lasater should carry us through a fine season. Greg is 13-2 overall for 3 years & George is 2-0. Randy Soriano is our long ball threat. Joe Trepanier, hitting .400 the first part of the season went 5-5 against Edmonds April 6th. Darrell Koshelnik, a returning all-conference outfielder has been heading the outfield corp.

Randy Soriano pours it on toward first.

Darrell Koshelnik gets a good swing on the ball.

The Jr. Gulls wait for Sultan to hit the ball.

Vince Clubb is safe at 1st by a hair.

The J.V. started out very well this season. With so many Varsity players returning next year, the aim of the J.V. is to find pitchers & catchers. The team has been working hard & has many fine players.

Streets of New York

This springs play, "Streets Of New York," was a great success. The acting was superb and the singing was excellent. The play was kind of a joining of the Coral and Drama departments for the second time this year. They seem to work great together and I'm sure we can expect many works of stage art from the co-operation of these two groups in the near future.

A gentleman doesn't belong in this group.

Mr Henry helps Gary Wells with his costum.

Lisa sings out loud and clear for the audiance.

I think someone is coming!

Mary Chris Henry, Wendy Lueth, Patty True, and Sue Wallery, sing beautifully together.

Pieces Of April

Mark Paterson shows expression of having a good time.

"Pieces Of April" was this years theme for the Junior Prom. The theme was perfect because there couldn't have been a nicer day to have it on. There was a very large turnout and they got what they payed for. As everyone says the band was terrific and the food was too.

There was many old grads that came back for this special occasion and they seemed to be remembering all the good times they had had in the past.

"Is something funny"

"We're having a good time."

Steve Gordon and Sue Reed take a rest.

"We are in the midst of war" the announcement boomed. It went on to tell of the blind-fold chess match between the top players of the E.H.S. club and a state rated adult player, Steve Chase, in an exhibition match last fall. This game as a prelude to the chess league season.

The E.H.S. chess club is quite active and made up of many students interested in chess. Each winter the chess club fields a team made up of the top players from the chess club to compete in the WESCO Chess League. Their goals are: Having fun playing chess, improving their game, and winning the WESCO League. They hope that all students will feel welcome to take part.

The Anglers club at E.H.S. is open to all students who have an interest in fishing and the outdoors. In the fall the club held a Steelhead clinic which club members, parents, and friends attended. They have learned about methods, places, and equipment; and throughout the season have been practicing in the area rivers. In the spring an outing in quest of the wild trout was conducted.

Members spent much time in the age old Angler Tales about the one that got away.

Bowling, a Promising Sport

Todd Crenshaw, an excellent example of concentration, release, and follow through form.

The bowling team has been little known until this year. There was quite a turn-out and most of the students have really shown a talent for the sport. There were several high scores, in the 200's, accounting for their third place position with two remaining weeks in the tournament. The girls have played their part in the team too. All have shown excellent form, much like pros.

Lorraine Crenshaw and Rosella Hansen are the team advisors, and have helped immensely. They hope that more students will take an interest in the team in the future.

The Club's membership approached the 60 mark this year. In December the Club took a trip to Vancouver B.C. Canada.

It was one of the highlights of the year. A big Charter-bus took the members to various parts of Vancouver, including Chinatown, Gastown, German stores and restaurants. A trip to Victoria is planned for the spring. The Club will also strongly support a 3 day Camp at Silverton in April.

Math Club

Business math helps students become aware of the everyday business problems and situations that occur in our economic society. It helps students to apply the basic arithmetic functions to such business transactions as personal money records, buying problems, wage and commission income problems, savings and investments, home expense, taxes and related problems to business. This course will greatly help the student in his own business affairs.

Kodak Strives for Freedom of Speech

This years Kodak staff has tried to make EHS schools paper appealing to all students. Informing of some of the problems of youth today was our goal. We did this by printing articles' such as Teenage Alcoholism. We were able to speak out through our articles and your responses. We strived for truth and freedom of speech.

First semester Ms. Haskins was the advisor of the Kodak. Now she is teaching at George Washington Carver Middle School.

Nesika

The school year started early for the Nesika staff. Preparations for this year's yearbook started last May with selection of the Nesika's cover and type styles. Plans were also started for the Senior section by Senior Class Editor Tom Danielson. The outline of the whole book was also in preparation by Editor Merrick Chandler and Advisor Mr. Roger Anthony.

Each staff member was in charge of many pages which had to be designed, layed-out, & copyfitted. The staff also learned to crop pictures, which were taken by staff photographers Mike Smith and Doug Hutter, and prepare them for printing. Everyone also learned salesmanship with the selling of ads and the yearbook itself.

Many endless hours have been spent by the staff preparing this year's book and getting it ready for distribution to the student body on Campus Day.

Many of the Boys' Club activities have been in conjunction with the Girls' Club, such as: homecoming activities, dance, and the joint Christmas Basket project, which were huge successes due to the enthusiasm and spirit of both the boys and girls participating. The primary purpose of the Boys' Club is to be of service to the school and community. One such project is the setting up and operating the A.S.B. P.A. system for all basketball games, school assemblies, and many community sponsored activities held in our auditorium. Other activities that the Boys' Club participated in were: Paddle (Control) Squad, assemblies, campus clean-up, fund drives, hall supervision, the supervision and operation of the stereo music played in the Student Lounge during the two noon lunches.

The Girls' Club held their Fall New Student Tea on Sept. 25 this year, which included a fashion show with clothes from Chaffees, a skit, and refreshments. We sponsored the Homecoming dance on Halloween night, and in November we had an exchange with Cascade's Girls' Club Cabinet for a Thanksgiving dinner which we prepared. The Girls' Club Tolo was held on Dec. 12 - the theme being "The Holiday Hop". The most exciting part of the year was the school fund drive for Christmas Baskets, in which a quota of $800 was surpassed by $700 for Everett's needy families.

A rollerskating party is planned for February and St. Patrick's Day will be the date of our Father - Daughter Banquet. The Senior Mother - Daughter Tea will be in May.

Lettermen Continue Old Traditions

This year the letterman club involved itself in several worthwhile school projects. They helped put on a successful Cummins Memorial basketball game and raised money for other school functions. Under the capable leadership of president Henry James, the club made an attempt to reassume some of the service to the school traditions of past letterman clubs, but these efforts did not meet with resounding success. It is hoped that the club will soon again be the vibrant force in school life that it once was.

Art Thompson seems to have something other than Xmas on his mind.

Lettermen can not have everything, so John Bielser is about to tell Santa what he would like for Christmas.

Pep Club Has a "Spiritual" Year!!

The Pep-Club at Everett High was open to all students interested in promoting spirit, at the pep assemblies and at sports events. For the most part the members consisted of the Yell Leaders & Cheer Leaders, but many other people also worked on the planning of all the pep assemblies and participated in the many skits that were shown.
